SACS IS GREEN!

Continue to help preserve our planet as well as earn funds for our school.
Recycle aluminum cans and plastic bottles in their designated bins. Thank you!

LET'S MOVE! DAY

Let's Move Day was a success!

The students were able to participate in four different activities: Tricycle Races, The Mile, Hula Hoop Relay, and a game of Catch The Bacon.
It was a fun day!

Attention Students

There will be an expansion of this Newsletter.

You will have the opportunity to submit a drawing, a poem, or a joke for the entertainment column of this newsletter.

We want to show your art and writing skills to all that may see our Eagle's Note

More information regarding deadlines and rules will be announced. Please stay tuned for more!

A special Thank You goes to

Pastor

Delroy A. Brooks

of the

Juniper Ave SDA Church

For volunteering his time to play sports with the students.

Every Wednesday, Pastor Brooks will be on the field or basketball court around 10:00am

Starting with TK-2 and then 3rd-5th and lastly grades 6th-8th

Fall Festival

Always In Our Hearts

In Loving Memory

Of

Mrs. Gladys Sitompul

Her service and dedication will never be forgotten.

Our school has been blessed by her positive influence and wisdom for more than 35 years. Starting when SACS was first called PAJA, then SAJA and now SACS. She retired from San Antonio Christian School in 2006 leaving us with the best memories and experiences we could have ever asked for.

May the Lord Bless her immediate family in this time of sadness and until we meet again in the Kingdom.

WE LOVE YOU

Thank You for Being You and leaving behind such a beautiful memory of such a wonderful soul.
